Seriously? Get a life.

Chapter 4 by Eloise

Ahem. I am flabbergasted. Why on earth do you feel the need to proceed on to the next excruciatingly boring chapter of this story? I was BORED, okay? So I made a story! Pleeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeease! Goooooooooooo awaaaaaaaaaaay! This is a waste of your time! I have better stories, believe me! "The Glimpse" is my top story! And if you like that, go on to "The Glimpse: Part Two"! And you can follow intellikat, Joakim and Sarah Matisse-Damon! Also, you can read 'The Story Without Exclamation!'

Anything but THIS! Why is it impossible to delete stories on Story Wars!

What? What are you saying?

Oh my gosh, you STILL want to know about the fortune-telling pinata that looked like a pig, whose name was Bob, who wore a tutu?

Once upon a time, some annoying kid hit Bob with a baseball bat and a bunch of candy fell out. The squealing kids around him dashed for the candy and grabbed as much as they could. And then Bob said in a deep voice -

Hey! Are you tricking me into betraying my title? How dare you? I am going to proceed to the nothingness as quickly as possible! Bah humbug! Oh no, not "A Christmas Carol"...

Chapter 5 by Eloise

But so it was: we enter on Scrooge, sitting at his desk. Christmas was approaching.

Chapter 6 by Weirdfriendlessgirl

Seriously the fact that you are still reading this means that either you're so bored you'd rather read this story as opposed to stories about something or you really don't believe it's about nothing. It is.... it's a story about nothing....nothing

Nothing!

Want a second? I'm writing another one.
I can't think of anything else to say.

Nothing that used to be something someday... But now, at this point of time it has lost all its value. Left nothing...

Just nothing.

Or wait a minute... Is it actually something?

Ohhh come one GO AWAY you can't force me to write on nothing that nothing.
